EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GUARDIAN PROTECTION PRODUCTS,
INC.,

Case No. 1:20-cv-01680-SKO

Plaintiff/Counter-defendant,

ORDER re SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

Related Case: 1:15-cv-00321-SKO

v.

G.P.P., INC. d/b/a GUARDIAN
INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS,

Defendant/Counterclaimant.

The parties having stipulated to the trial Judge acting as settlement judge and waived any disqualification by virtue thereof, see E.D. Cal. Local Rule 270(b), this case is now set for a Settlement Conference before Magistrate Judge Sheila K. Oberto on April 17, 2025, at 9:00 AM at the U.S. District Court, 2500 Tulare Street, Fresno, California, 93721.

Consideration of settlement is a serious matter that requires thorough preparation prior to the settlement conference. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Pre-settlement Conference Exchange of Demand and Offer

A settlement conference is more likely to be productive if, before the conference, the parties exchange written settlement proposals. Accordingly, by no later than March 14, 2025, counsel for Plaintiff shall submit an updated written itemization of damages and settlement demand to each defense counsel with a brief summary of the legal and factual basis supporting the demand. By no later than March 28, 2025, defense counsel shall submit a written offer to counsel for Plaintiff with a brief summary of the legal and factual basis supporting the offer.

2. Submission and Content of Confidential Settlement Conference Statements

The parties are to send Confidential Settlement Conference Statements (Settlement Statement) to the following email address: SKOorders@caed.uscourts.gov, to arrive by no later than April 4, 2025. Each statement shall be clearly marked “CONFIDENTIAL” with the date and time of the mandatory settlement conference indicated prominently. Each party shall also file a Notice of Submission of Confidential Settlement Conference Statement. (See E.D. Cal. L.R. 270 (d).)

If the Settlement Conference is continued for any reason, each party must submit a new Settlement Statement that is complete in itself, without reference to any prior Settlement Statements.

Each Settlement Statement shall include the following:

- a. A brief summary of the core facts, allegations, and defenses, a forthright evaluation of the parties’ likelihood of prevailing on the claims and defenses, and a description of the major issues in dispute.
- b. A summary of the proceedings to date.
- c. An estimate of the cost and time to be expended for further discovery, pretrial, and trial.
- d. The nature of the relief sought.
- e. An outline of past settlement efforts including information regarding the “Pre-settlement Conference Exchange of Demand and Offer” required above—including the itemization of damages—and a history of past settlement discussions, offers, and demands.
- f. A statement of each party’s expectations and goals for the Settlement Conference.

3. Attendance of Trial Counsel and Parties Required

Unless otherwise permitted in advance by the Court, the attorneys who will try the case and parties with full and complete settlement authority shall personally attend the conference.¹ An insured party shall appear by a representative of the insurer who is authorized to negotiate, and who has full authority to negotiate and settle the case. An uninsured corporate party shall appear by a representative authorized to negotiate, and who has full authority to negotiate and settle the case. It is difficult for a party who is not present to appreciate the process and the reasons that may justify a change in one's perspective toward settlement. Accordingly, having a client with authority available by telephone is not an acceptable alternative, except under the most extenuating circumstances.²

The Court expects both the lawyers and the party representatives to be fully prepared to participate. The Court encourages all parties to keep an open mind in order to reassess their previous positions and to discover creative means for resolving the dispute.

4. Issues to Be Discussed

The parties shall be prepared to discuss the following at the settlement conference:

- a. Goals in the litigation and problems they would like to address in the settlement conference and understanding of the opposing side's goals.
- b. The issues (in and outside the lawsuit) that need to be resolved.
- c. The strengths and weaknesses of their case.
- d. Their understanding of the opposing side's view of the case.
- e. Their points of agreement and disagreement (factual and legal).
- f. Any financial, emotional, and/or legal impediments to settlement.
- g. Whether settlement or further litigation better enables the accomplishment of their respective goals.
- h. Any possibilities for a creative resolution of the dispute.

person or persons who occupy high executive positions in the party organization and who will be directly involved in the process of approval of any settlement offers or agreements.

² Out of town or out of state travel and the purchase of an airplane ticket are not extenuating circumstances.

5. Statements Inadmissible

The parties are expected to address each other with courtesy and respect and are encouraged to be frank and open in their discussions. Statements made by any party during the settlement conference are not to be used in discovery and will not be admissible at trial.

6. Pre-Settlement Discussion

Prior to the Settlement Conference, Magistrate Judge Oberto will hold a brief, telephonic discussion on April 11, 2025, at 9:00 AM (dial-in number: 1-669-254-5252; Meeting ID: 160 801 1115; passcode 449390). Only attorneys and unrepresented parties are required to participate in the conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
